Retreat Policies and Guidelines

Sleeping Policy: At each retreat the youth have a choice between a gender (either male or female) identified quiet room, and the gender-neutral room. A movie is played in the gender-neutral room. Each youth must have their own sleeping materials (sleeping bag/blanket, pillow and sleeping pad). At any point in the quiet rooms, and once the movie is over in the co-ed room, all participants are expected to be asleep. Each room has at least 2 adults in it who remain awake until all youth are asleep and who are available to be awoken when needed. Additionally there is a retreat Chaplain in a designated Chaplain room who can also be awoken at anytime."

Medications: Please ensure that any medication that a youth may require is brought in a clearly labeled bag, with the intended dosages and timings easily available to the Registrar, Marlene Abel (or her designate in her absence). A chaplain will ensure that the youth will receive their medication on time, and that it is kept safe. If possible send only the dosage needed for the length of the event.

Policy on Sexuality and Community for All Participants:

While sexuality is a healthy and important part of young people's lives, there are times and places where sexual behavior is inappropriate. This policy seeks to create a healthy and safe space for all participants.

Exclusive relationships detract from the community. All participants must abide by the following policies:

- Participants must respect each other's physical boundaries.
- Participants shall refrain from sexual, seductive or erotic behavior while at the event.
- Sexual behavior between participants at the event and sexual harassment are not permitted and will not be tolerated.
 - Any harassment regarding race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex, gender, sexual orientation, or disability will not be tolerated. Such harassment includes unsolicited remarks, gestures or physical contact, display or circulation of written materials or derogatory pictures directed at any of these categories. In addition, sexual advances, jokes, explicit or offensive pictures, requests for sexual favors, sexting, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment.

Covenant: The Youth participants of have agreed on the following covenant in order to keep our community a safe and healthy place

We, the attendees of the Middle School Unitarian Universalist Gatherings, do covenant to:

1. Encourage and practice a Culture of Consent by supporting each other as we create a safe space.
2. Respect ourselves and each other, including feelings, boundaries and belongings. Respect people's privacy.
3. Respect people's self-care needs, especially sleep and worship.
4. Take responsibility for our actions, words, and things, remindful of effects beyond what we might expect. Practice "oops" and "ouch".
5. Create a welcoming, supportive and affirmative space where everyone, new and old, feels comfortable and equal. "Leave space for Tom". "Invite Tom."
6. Keep this space clear of snap judgements and stereotypes. Respect people's differences. Call people how they ask to be called.

7. Step Up/Step Back. Listen actively. Be open to new ideas and experiences. Be mindful of equity in participation.

8. Use electronics respectfully, inclusively and purposefully.

9. Act as an ally: defend and empower those in need. Get and offer help.

10. Practice these commitments with all individuals on site, not just MUUGs' members.

Parents/guardians are invited to discuss these policies and this covenant with youth.

Behavioral Guidelines for Participants
